Rumpelstiltzkin

Song Play in Two Acts

Lyrics by Berta Elsmith

Music, Folk Tunes harmonized by Charles Repper

SYNOPSIS

ACT I

In the village square, in front of the castle, the marketers show their wares to the cottagers. The Miller's lovely daughter also comes to the market and is noticed by the king who is looking out a castle window. As the story is told in song and pantomime, the miller's daughter, with the assistance of the cunning Rumpelstiltzkin who spins straw into gold for her, becomes the chosen queen. In return for his help she promises to give him anything he asks.

ACT II

In the nursery the queen and the attendants are celebrating the baby princess' first birthday. In the evening, when all is quiet, Rumpelstiltzkin appears and demands the baby as his reward. Confusion reigns in the nursery! Out in the forest the gnomes dance with joy at the thought of the lovely playmate Rumpelstiltzkin will bring them. However, his plot is foiled by the Littlest Page and all ends happily for the Royal family.
